

Kids with drive like Bugner get lifetime

By PAUL KENT

CROSS town a young man works hard on his combinations, his hobby suddenly an opportunity. The Central Coast a young man sparring partner, away on his sparring that would away body shots that would small tree.

In inner-city gym the constant in pads being hammered is the of ambition.

They are not stories of hope and of all three titles for refusing men the sanctioning bodies him to, doesn't seem to matter. Joe wants a fight, at Ayers against Big George. "Let's get it orge," he bellowed last week orman appeared at a Sydney dare you to face me."

Joe Young, 26, it is a chance he fought possible.

Now and again he climb out of the ra A grade scum to his fists for a few but he always consid- by league his love. he understands the inity boxing has ver for him.

successful result against champion Young, victory when he fights Asian for the WBF a after, and suddenly Kelly himself ranked somewhere in 's top 20.

nurses will triple," says man- rge Reno. And he will be in eagues.

he's ever heard of Kevin instead we get a 45-year-old who will admittedly make a rs if he does get a fight, but umns are filled back-stabbing twisted results Kevin Kelly's national brothers w the ring. Now in a position in "Not at it later, as thing Things react year. After supplement things got set "The domi his way," Row In rapid su title, the na Commonwealth world ranking It's enough give away his "If I come two fights I more," he say amongst the "It's hard though. It do you're not get hard to push A little like man, having the E day, in again "Action A nation from ries struggl parne solid v he can shots t and mrd hit. The in a fig Joe set He nev speed a to go. A bution the closing five minutes to for with young bloway onto the grid al Justin Rowless, second on the Ferr Rowless. He Their pairing Smallman. He Stepping up might be a dre bid for the A in 1996 but weight title, appreciate Australian light the Fer His trainer and the ambitious bet don. in Sy were in Syd at the wa dium to wa According the atmosphere w cosy until two coa obviously do not see eye, clashed and began, oth ing. Luckily, several high ranking officials stepped to before punches started to connect.

LEWIS

FENECH

There's no truth in the rumour that Don King has been in contact with the two foes.

THE NSW Rugby Union has come to its senses by forgetting the idea of having a Waratah team manager and another official to take the NSW team overseas.

There were strong suggestions that officials would be rewarded by being offered overseas trips, with the nice overseas manager State team. Now it appears the full-time paid manager will head the party whenever it plays overseas next season.

THE Men of League calendar has some opposition. Gunnedah rugby officials, including the former award-winning Sun-Herald photog- rapher Paul Matthews, have come up with their lead- version, with the team's lead- ing players showing off their physiques in interesting set- tings.

The calendar includes the team manager hiding his private parts behind a pile of Bush Tuckerman hats. Another is covered by cotton. Early placed the farmers and one of the cold team braves the cold the back paddo waiting for the p The calendar Friday night collector's

He spring practice at Monza

rd sets Monza

He can shots t and mrd hit. The in a fig Joe set He nev speed a to go. A bution the closing five minutes to for with young bloway onto the grid al Justin Rowless, second on the Ferr Rowless. He Their pairing Smallman. He Stepping up might be a dre bid for the A in 1996 but weight title, appreciate Australian light the Fer His trainer and the ambitious

5 MORNING!
WHY WE CAN STUFF
AGAIN!

Slipper

GIVE ME MY SLIPPERS, NOW!

CAMPAIGN RESPONSIBLE

SPEND AS MUCH LIKE ON IT.

THIS... IS THE FINAL EXAMINATION.

WHAT'S IN THE PARCEL

E'RE GOING TO HAVE A LITTLE CHAT, SARGO.

I HAVE TO NOTHING TO SAY TO YOU.

CHARLIE
OVER CANYON WAY IN

JIM UNGER

